

2019 Adirondack Swimming Athlete Newsletter

Senior Athlete Rep- Marco Greico

Junior Athlete Rep-Mark Lipkin

Senior Athlete At-Large- Patrick Sweeney

Junior Athlete At Large- Amaya Digovanni

- Junior Athlete Representative/Athlete At-Large Election-

Bio's due Sunday, February 24th

The Athlete Representative must be an Athlete Member in good standing and a sophomore in high school. They will be encouraged to arrange a meeting (in person or on the phone) with the current Athlete Representatives. Bios will be displayed at both Silvers meets on Saturday and Sunday and all teams will get 3 votes to cast at Golds. Unattached Athletes will get combined and treated as a single team with 3 votes. Results will be announced before finals on the Sunday of Golds. Bios along with candidate pictures should be emailed to adathletereps@gmail.com.

- Adirondack Swimming Logo Contest-

Submissions due Friday, March 1st

Have a knack for art or even just a creative mind? Applications are still open for the Adirondack Swimming Logo contest. Anyone is welcome to submit a new logo for the LSC. The only guidelines are that it must incorporate Adirondack colors: blue and yellow, and it must have the text "Adirondack or some creative variation of the name". Email your applications to adathletereps@gmail.com by March 1, 2019 to be included in the competition. We hope to see you send one in!

- Senior Scholarship-

Applications due Friday, March 1st

At Golds, Adirondack Swimming awards one senior boy and one senior girl a scholarship for their outstanding contributions to their team and swimming. The criteria for the scholarship includes: The Athlete must be college bound, graduating high school with a minimum of a B average, must have swam with an Adirondack team for at least 4 years, must have fulfilled all team expectations of practice and attendance, must have made contributions to the team such as serving as captain, teaching swim lessons, or helping younger swimmer, must plan to swim in college, and must write a short essay about their swimming accomplishments. *The awarding of these scholarships is not based on the caliber of the swimmer, no qualifying times are necessary. Submit applications to Sean Caron, 17 Vienna Court, Burnt Hills, NY 12027 *Applications must be postmarked by March 1st, more info can be found under the Athletes page on the Adirondack Swimming Website.

- Senior Athlete Bio's-

Submissions due Sunday, March 17th

Graduating seniors of Adirondack Swimming are encouraged to submit a Senior Bio to JoAnn Faucet to be read during the Senior Walk at Golds Sunday Night. The form can be found in the Golds meet announcement.

Any questions for your Athlete Reps?

Email adathletereps@gmail.com